Dear Family & Friends -

September is the month that should make us remember a specific date. 9/11, 2001. We don't need to tell you what happened that day, but we do need to remember what it meant. Our freedoms were threatened, we were torn apart but brought ourselves together again. Let's remember to pray for those who were lost, and pray for those who continue to fight to keep America the way that our ancestors fought so hard to make it.

It's been a great summer! We had a fantastic 4th of July and some much needed rain. Sadly, the softball tournaments had to be cancelled due to lack of teams. Our little town has had softball since I was a kid and played in the women's league in Grandview. We have the winter to figure out how to get both the men's and women's teams back to town and keep with this time honored tradition! Let's make it happen!

This month we visited with Jim and Cathy Nieckula & Jim and Seana Frint, past and present owners of Jim's Bait. The bait shop has been a fixture in our community for over 50 years and is September's Reminiscing story. We also added an extra Reminiscing treat about the Music and Dancing days at local establishments. Enjoy and God Bless.

Labor Day, a United States Federal holiday, began in 1882, originating from a desire by the Central Labor Union in New York City to create a day off for the "working man." It constitutes a yearly national tribute to the contributions workers have made to the strength, prosperity, and well-being of our country.

IT'S BACK TO SCHOOL TIME. GOOD LUCK TO ALL THE STUDENTS IN THE COMING YEAR! MAKE IT COUNT ! For this years Seniors, here's a little something I wrote my senior year. Hope you like it.

LOCAL FISHING UPDATES:

with Tom Rice

Summer is coming to a close, which leads us to think that the fishing season is also over and we need to turn in our poles for pencils. Not so fast my fishing friends !!

I met up with Tom and he was gracious enough to once again share the latest fishing updates with me.

He said this time of year fish are biting very well. Walleyes are being caught on crank baits on wind-blown rock reefs, as well as "deep diving shad raps." (Crawdad color is Tom's favorite.)

There is good late evening fishing between 6:00 – 8:00 as well on the edges of the weed beds, catching with leeches on slip bobbers. However, Tom mentioned that leeches are hard to come by this time of year so if you can find them, grab them! (so to speak) 🤪

Crappies seem to be hanging around, but just a few now.

Muskies are biting! He said several people have had "multiple musky" days, so they're not just "fishing", they're "catching!"

Looking forward to September and October as these months are typically the best months to CATCH!

Be sure to enjoy our lakes as long as you can, keeping them clean and being safe!

Reminder:

Please abide by the Fishing Rules and Regulations. Booklets are available any where fishing licenses are sold.

ROY STANLEY KIEKHAFER

Roy Stanley Kiekhafer, 79, of Turtleville, WI, died Wednesday, April 26, 2017 at the VA Hospital, Madison, WI, following a short illness.

He was born April 3, 1938 in Baraboo, WI, the adopted son of Carl and Helen (Tillotson) Kiekhafer. Roy was a 1956 graduate of Clinton High School. He was a veteran serving with the U.S. Army during the Korean Conflict from 1956 until 1959. During his tour of duty, he was a clarinetist playing in the U.S. Army Band during the 2nd Inauguration of President Eisenhower and received the Expert Marksman and Good Conduct Medals. Roy met Karen Christensen at a USO dance, married on September 6, 1959, and together they raised three children.

Roy's first job was as a typesetter with the Clinton Topper Newspaper. Following his honorable discharge from the Army, he was employed by Sunstrand and later by Gilman Engineering in Janesville, retiring in 2003 after 37 years. Roy lived a life of Christianity, was very generous where he saw need, and loved to dance. He enjoyed going to and holding rummage sales and auctions, as well as salvaging old homes, barns and miscellaneous materials; he was known as the "Original Picker." He possessed an uncommon work ethic and a quiet pride in his military service. Roy enjoyed being part of his community, serving on the Variance Committee for Turtle Township and as a past volunteer for Shopiere Days. He enjoyed going fishing and kayaking at his northern cabin and appreciated a good polka band. He took great delight in attending the various sporting events of his children and grandchildren, riding in his eldest sons restored '57 Chevy, or spending time fishing with his sons on Delavan Lake. Roy was fun-loving and is known to his extended family for his super-soaker squirt gun and giant watermelons, to the delight of his grandchildren and many nieces and nephews. He appreciated a good cup of coffee, good conversation, farm fresh eggs, old movies, and generously rewarded good service. He was much loved and will be sorely missed.

Survivors include his children, Kevin (Lee Skupniewitz) Kiekhafer, Kurt (Kelli) Kiekhafer, both of Delavan, and Kathleen (Ronald) Woodman of Janesville; grandchildren, Joseph (Taylor), Zachary and Ellie Woodman, and Kailey and Kloe Kiekhafer; great grandson, Chase; siblings, Dale (Kathy) Beckman, Ralph (Joyce) Bovee, Nina Phipps, Carol Holmbeck, John (Vivian) Bovee, Linda (Elaine Powell) Borgwardt, Eileen (Bob) Bertrand, Marilyn (Gregg) Zank, and Anthony "Butch" (Susan) Meyer; many nieces and nephews; and a special friend and dance partner.

He was predeceased by his parents, Carl Kiekhafer and Helen (Jack) London, and a brother-in-law, Robert Phipps. The family would like to acknowledge the Madison VA Hospital for their extraordinary care and reverence given to Roy. A Celebration of Life was held on Saturday, May 20, 2017 in the Daley Murphy Wisch & Associates Funeral Home and Crematorium, Beloit, WI, with Pastor Norman Starks officiating. Military Honors were accorded by the V.F.W. Post #2306. Memorials in his name may be given to the Town of Turtle Fire Department or Clinton Cemetery Avenue of Flags. Online condolences may be sent to the family at www.daleymurphywisch.com

A note from Roy's daughter: I have been traveling north with my family for 54 years, first to Lower Eau Claire Lake to my great-uncle's cabin, then my dad's house trailer there, and since 1982, we have enjoyed coming to the family property on Bony Creek right off Lake Road. My young family helped my father to build his outbuildings and cabin and have many wonderful fishing stories on both Middle Eau Claire and Bony Lakes. My father was only able to travel North 1-3 times per year but I plan to make more frequent visits from May through October, and possibly even make a winter visit. My father passed unexpectedly on April 26 and left things set up so that I was able to purchase the cabin from the estate and keep the property in our family. My own three adult children enjoy being Up North as well and hope to travel often with their own families and friends to enjoy the wonderful surroundings and people of the area. We are from the southern part of the state (Rock County) so it is about a 5 hour drive for us but we intend to make it as often as we can. Two of my father's brothers, Ralph Bovee and Dale Beckman, also own 3-season properties at Middle Eau Claire Lake, and he has a sister, Eileen Bertrand, and a brother, Anthony "Butch" Meyer, who reside in Stone Lake.

The family would like to express a Special Thank You to her girls at Ivy Manor and to Dr. Herdrich, Dr. Mooney and Dr. Johnstone for all their exceptional care and concern.

TOM WALMSLEY

Tom Walmsley was a man who loved to laugh and make other people happy. As a young man, he asked Jesus Christ to forgive him of his sins and come into his heart as Savior. Tom was born again and through the years he loved to tell others about his Lord and Savior. Tom's family was very important to him. His sons,

Tommy and Cory and his adopted daughter Chrissy learned about Jesus from their dad. Tom's four grandchildren were his great joy and we trust that they will remember Grandpa and all the happy times he shared with them. The last verse we shared was, Trust in the Lord with all our heart and lean not on your own understanding. In all the ways acknowledge Him and He shall direct the path. Proverbs 3:5,6

His fervent prayer was that everyone in his family would know Christ as their Savior. Tom is survived by his wife Joyce; sons Tom and wife Joelle and Cory; daughter Chrissy; brother Dan; sisters Babette and Bob Wroblewski and Jackie Liljengren; and grandsons Thomas, Job and Wyatt and granddaughter Taite. Emily Stone Lecture—BAHA Museum

On Monday, July 24, at the Barnes Town Hall about 50 people enjoyed a lecture by Emily Stone, the naturalist at the Cable Natural History Museum, and author of the book Natural Connections: Exploring Northwoods Nature Through Science and Your Senses. Emily's knowledge of nature in the north woods, and her pictures and stories of sharing the outdoors with others were entertaining, educational, and helped us further appreciate the diversity of life in our north woods. The lecture was publicized by Barnes Notes and News, Forest and Lakes, and WOJB. It was sponsored by the Friends of the Eau Claire Lakes Area, the Barnes Book Club, and Forest and Lakes.

VACATION BIBLE SCHOOL - AT THE BARNES COMMUNITY CHURCH

About 50 children gathered at the Barnes Church during the first week in August to learn more about science and the God of the Bible. The theme of this year's VBS was SonSpark Labs. All aspects from decorating to games reflected that science theme.

The children ranging in age from four to seventeen spent the week playing games, learning great songs, doing crafts and eating delicious snacks. In the midst of all the fun they were learning, experimenting and making lasting friendships.

Our mission this year was to help buy kitchen equipment for the Lupisi Village Soul Kitchen in South Africa. Several times each week about 75 children are fed their mid-day (often the only) meal at the kitchen which operates with only primitive equipment.

We were amazed at the outpouring of support and our children's interest in helping. Two of the picture you see are some of our children in class and others learning music. The third picture is of the village children greeting us. It was an awesome week, and we look forward to the surprises in store next year. Submitted by: Bonnie Dealing

The Music Department of the Barnes Community Church is planning its eighth Musicfest scheduled for Saturday, September 30, 2017 at 7:00 p.m. The early Musicfest events were held during the summer, but fall dates have been the norm in recent years. Because of the change in scheduling, the event is now known as the 'Fall Harvest Musicfest.' This year the event will include a benefit for the Barnes Community Church Food Pantry, which has served many families in the area.

Any area musicians interested in performing to support the benefit, may register by calling # 715-795-2621. A freewill offering will be taken at the event, and canned food donations will also be accepted. The program will be followed by refreshments and is open to the public. Submitted by: Carol Newman, BCC Music Committee Co-Chair

UFO CRAFTERS

The UFO Crafters met on August 21 for the first August meeting. We were a small group that day. One person brought some watercolor paints and equipment and worked on a painting. Another person worked on embroidering cross-stitch flowers on some little sachet bags. Others continued working on older projects, one was a piecing a primitive style quilt block by hand and the person working on the knitted afghan continued with that project.

August 28 brought the second meeting for the month. We were a larger group that day. The watercolor painter, the embroiderer, and afghan knitter continued with those projects. Also represented were a sock knitter, a fisherman's cap knitter, hand-piecing a different quilt top, and two people working on greeting cards. One of whom was getting a head start on Christmas cards. The great conversations included Hurricane Harvey and its devastation, where to go for good quilt fabrics, some upcoming quilt shows, class reunions, the merits of quilting classes and other art classes in the area, the stunning exhibit at the Northern Great Lakes Visitors Center on Hwy 2 of the handwoven portraits of 12 Native American elder women from the 12 tribes in Wisconsin, and a general lament about there being no one in the area who works on sewing machines. (If anyone knows of someone let us know, please.) For more information visit: www.nglvc.org

We have one more month of meeting on the 3rd and 4th Mondays of the month before we go back to our regular dates of the second and fourth Mondays of the month. The meeting dates for September are Monday, the 18th and Monday, the 25th. We meet at the Barnes Town Hall at 1:30 P.M. Come and bring your Un-Finished Objects and join us for a relaxing afternoon of crafting and conversation. We'd love to have you join us.

In my thirty-five year association with the Chequamegon Fat Tire Festival I have seen tens of thousands of bicycles come and go through our wonderful community. With all that bicycle activity it was only natural that the event office in Cable might become a focal point for two wheeled activity, information and history.

Years ago I started to hang bicycles on the wooden west wall of the Chequamegon office. First one, then another and then a few more until over a dozen vintage cycles of all varieties were displayed in a cycling billboard for downtown Cable.

The wall of bikes has attracted a lot of attention, inviting those with a cycling perspective to stop in to see what they represented. Was this building a bike race office, a bike shop, a bicycle museum or all of the above? The bike wall was a photo opportunity waiting to happen and many a cycling group have had their photo taken in front of the display.

Over the years, the wall of bikes also attracted other randomly dropped off bikes. On regular occasion, I would come into work and find that someone had dropped off a bike, or two, at the office. Sometimes people called about dropping off bikes. Many times the bikes just appeared.

The bicycles that I have been gifted have been a variety of ages, sizes and conditions. Some had a great amount of life in them, others had seen better days. Since the wall was pretty filled already I started to rehab the bicycles that could be easily fixed and got them back into community use. Many bikes that just needed a tire inflation or cable adjustment or bit of lubrication found their way to the UCC Church 2nd Chapter Thrift Shop on County Highway M. There they were sold for a small amount to someone looking for affordable transportation. Other serviceable bicycles were given to friends who had growing families or other need of an inexpensive two wheeler.

Recently, a Huffy All Pro 1 girls bike showed up at my door. I wasn't sure where it had come from or why it had been delivered to my office. The fenders where shiny and there was not much if any rust on the frame. This was an old bike that someone no longer wished to have. It appeared to have plenty of life left in it.

I puzzled over what to do with the bike. I did have one more spot on my wall and the soothing green color of the frame would have been a nice addition to the blue, red and black bikes already on the wall.

Before I could get the bike hung on the wall, Kenny, one of the youngsters who had often come to my office, rolled up to my front door. Over the years I'd performed many bike repairs and adjustments on a variety of bikes Kenny had brought over. Today he was riding a two wheeler that I had not seen before, but it was clear his bike was unsafe at any speed. The rear brake lever and cable were missing. The front lever was rusted and inoperable. Rubber brake pads were missing but that didn't matter since the levers were frozen or missing. The three speed shifter was gone as was the cable. The bike was more rust than painted metal, and it was three sizes too big for Kenny.

As he had done many times before, Kenny asked if I could put some lubricant on his chain and get the brakes working. I am always up to a mechanical challenge, but this time his ride was beyond repair and actually dangerous for him to keep riding.

Then my eyes drifted over to the green Huffy All Pro 1 with the shiny chrome fenders. I asked if he wanted to trade bikes and he said sure. First I put the pump nozzle on the two deflated tires and he pumped them up. I was glad they held air. Then with a bit of leverage the metal stays that were jammed into the rear spokes were straightened. The crank would not rotate on this bike because the lacquer based lubricant had pretty much solidified over years of storage. With the trusty WD-40 and Teflon spray cans we doused the rear hub and bottom bracket to free up the rotation. I was glad the coaster brakes on this vintage bike were a good as new.

Kenny with his new bike

Voila, Kenny had a new bike! He was pretty happy as he and his sister rode off down the alley in front of my office.

I learned that the green Huffy was a gift from friend and neighbor Julie Frierwood. She said it was her husband Gary's mother's bike, Joyce Frierwood. While it hadn't been ridden for years, it was well taken care of. That is the thing about old bikes, they can sit for decades and a bit of inflation and lubrication and they are back on the road. I suspect this bike will be ridden for quite some time by Kenny and that he will at some time in the future bring it back to the Chequamegon Fat Tire Festival office for a tune up.

(A note from Julie Sarkauskas: Gary is my brother, and Mom would have LOVED the fact that her bike helped a child in need. She loved children so much, and she loved other children like her own.)

SEPTEMBER REMINISCING:

JIM'S BAIT - The Nieckula's

Finding a few hours to set aside, I met up with Jim and Cathy Nieckula, former owners of Jim's Bait. "Jim's Bait" was established in 1970. Jim Nieckula and then fiancée, Cathy, purchased the store from Charlie Leslie, who had run it as a bait shop under the name of Leslie's Bait for about 6 years.

Previous to that, it was owned by Warren & Betsy Schroeder. Betsy ran it as a small gift shop, which was only at this location for a short time. The gift shop was moved to a small building next to (what is now the Windsor). It was called Betsy's Gift Shop and was in business for about 5 years.

After Jim and Cathy got married on Feb. 21, 1970, they moved to the Eau Claire Lakes from Harvey, Illinois, a south suburb of Chicago. They opened the bait shop on May 1, 1970 and owned and operated it, along with their son, Jimmy, for 26 years. Jimmy went to Drummond School, and loved running track in High School. Their team won state!

(Cathy thought two years in a row when he was a junior /senior.) But Jimmy's real love was racing and building snowmobiles, which in turn led him to going to Mid-State Tech to learn about engines. He also loved working hard to make money which led him to owning his own mechanical repair shop in Eagle River. Obviously, Jim and Cathy are very proud parents.

First Musky Jim caught .

While Cathy took care of customers, Jim was out guiding Walleye and Musky. Famous fisherman, Roland Martin, came into the store and Jim advised him on where to fish, which Roland featured fishing on Upper Eau Claire lake on one of his national TV programs.

In the winter Jim cut pulp and worked in Hayward for a short time. Cathy cleaned cabins and waitressed a little in the early years. Out of necessity, Jim started his own hatchery for better bait to sell. Jim and Cathy would expand the shop three different times, with the last one adding the groceries, movie rentals and hardware.

The Nieckulas held three different fishing contests and still have the records of many of the fish that were entered. Later they added a winter bait shop at their house because the summer shop was not insulated. The conveniences that they had for the customers were outboard motor rentals, souvenirs, shirts, rod and reel repair, line winding on reels, (Jim did many hundreds of these which the customers really appreciated), information about the area, and bought lots of deer hides during hunting season. Later Jim invented, developed, patented and trademarked the Let-M-Run Slip sinker for walleye fishing.

Jim and Cathy sold the bait to Don Koser in 1996 who then sold to Gary Bergman in 1998. Jim and Seana Frint purchased the bait shop from Gary in 2014.

I intended on spending an hour or two with these folks, but ended up sharing many stories of the old days and them knowing my Dad, and that my brother Jack was a great help to them when Jim was ill. I got home around

JIM'S BAIT - THE FRINT FAMILY

Jim and Seana Frint are the current owners of Jim's Bait. (I managed to squeeze some time in with Seana in-between customers, which I was more than pleased to have to do.) Seems the shop was just waiting for Jim and his family seeing as it was already named for him! Jim and Seana purchased the bait shop on April 1, 2014 moving their family from Chadwick, IL which is in the northwest part of the state.

The ambience of the shop remains the same, however, with their own little twists here and there. You may have seen pictures of Pease Resort and the old days of ice cutting on their shelves. They also have postcards with these pictures for sale. One of the reasons for this is that Seana is Carol (Dave) Pease's niece, thus the family connection.

The bait shop is still a convenience store with clothing, groceries, and of course live bait and tackle. The shop has kept the same feel of hospitality that Jim's Bait has had for years, the only changes being out of necessity in order to keep up with customer demands.

You may remember a large carved fish out front of the shop. This was originally a tree, "gone trunk" that had been standing outside the front of the building. The tree was carved into a fish by Justin Howland of Grizz Works in Maple, WI. The fish was mounted outside the front of the building for a time, but unfortunately was getting very weathered so Jim and Seana had it restored and it is now beautifully displayed above the check out counter.

The Frint's have two daughters Sarah, 11 and Jamie, 7 who attend Drummond School. They enjoy several summer activities which include log rolling, softball, and T-ball. Jamie was in the children's play "Mary Poppins" with the Chequamegon Children's Theatre at Drummond School. Sarah is in band and participates in the "Battle of the Books". The way this works is that the students are assigned 20 books to read in 6 weeks, and then they compete against other schools. Drummond had 3 teams, of which Sarah's Team won in the 2016/2017 school year.

They also have a 21 year old son Leevi, who did not attend Drummond school when the family moved to Barnes. He stayed in Illinois to finish his high school career. Leevi helps out at the bait shop whenever needed, works for the Town of Barnes, and is a volunteer on the Barnes Fire Department. We are very glad to have the

New display in front of the shop Fish Restored

REMINISCING Bonus Story: "the Dance Hall Days"

June & Larry Everts

There is a long history of the businesses that that have come and gone in our wonderful little town, and on a beautiful August evening I had the pleasure of sitting with Sandy Collins, the youngest daughter of Larry and June Everts who previously owned the Frontier Supper Club. I learned of the many owners, the exquisite menus and the many bands & dancing throughout the years at the club. June Everts put together an informative list of previous owners and dates:

- By the President Grover Cleveland-Jan 25, 1888. Date of Record Oct 1, 1888
- May 10, 1920 Date of Record—May 17, 1920 J.B. McIntosh & Sam Morris
- To: Charles H. Evered—Oct 12, 1921. Date of Record June 8, 1922
- James B McIntosh & Emma McIntosh, his wife and Sam Morris & Winfred Morris his wife. To Bridget Conness on July 30, 1938 License: Winfred Morris. Wilbur Smith—Chairman / Thomas C. Cole—Town Clerk
- Winfred Hall formerly Winfred Morris, to: Adolph H. Bodhaine & Elizabeth M. Bodhaine Dated Oct 4, 1948. Date of Record Oct 6, 1948
- Bodhaine & wife to: Edgar Dieriks & Eleanor Diercks husband and wife as joint tenants. & Hebert K. Leavitt Jr.—Oct 1948
- Eleanor Diercks July 29, 1970 to Herbert J. Leavitt Jr. Dec 12, 1970 To Larry and June Everts April 5, 1971 Recorded April 7, 1971
- Sold by Larry & June Everts in 1977 to Steve and Maria Welshine
- Welshine sold in 1978 to Dave and Ann Klein. In 1978 the Frontier was destroyed by a devastating fire that would close the business for that family. Tragically, the same day Dave had been injured by a chain saw and was in the Duluth Hospital when the club burned down.

Larry was intent on keeping the wonders of music going strong. He put together a band in his younger days and continued to play drums at the Frontier through the time that they owned it. Sandy spoke of a record of his bands that she still has on the wall. Speaking of bands, Larry had music several nights a week. Some of the bands that were greatly enjoyed by both local dance fans and fans from afar were; Jazznocracy; The Frontiersmen (Alan, Bruce, Gus and Larry (Larry played the drums); Melody Makers and Louise Morgan on the organ. Genres included: Dixieland, Polkas, Country, Big Band, and whatever else people were in the mood for.

Larry and June had gone on vacation, ending up meeting with Herb Leavitt and quickly decided that's where their future would be. So, they threw their daughters Cindy, Bonnie and Sandy into the car and headed north from Milwaukee leaving the girls to wonder just where in the world they were headed on such a long trip.

Another story from Sandy & her sister Cindy, "My Mom's grand kids loved the country music that was performed at the Frontier so much, that they wanted to be a part of it. So the 4 grand kids 9 & under, all dressed up in western attire, with their cowboy hats and stood on the stage behind the bar and sang "Rhinestone Cowboy." They were a big hit, and everyone enjoyed them. The grand kids, now all in their 40's, look back and just shake their heads and smile!

LYNDALE BAY RESORT —

was another well known supper club and resort that had music and dancing over the years.

Located at the end of Lyndale Bay road (off of Pease Road), it was easily accessible from the Upper Eau Claire Lake within Lyndale Bay.

With the celebration of dancing in the good ole days ahead of us, we're adding a couple special bonus stories to the Reminiscing section about a few of the places that used to have music and dancing.

The Frontier Supper Club
The "one room" school houses
The Eau Claire Lake's Pavilion & Dance Hall

Others include: Lyndale Bay Resort, Sportsman's; Point O' Pines; Enchanted Inn, Sand Point, Hilltop, Barnes Town Hall (I remember when I was growing up we had "Soc Hops" there); Schachlers "Cheesies" Lakeview ; Swiss Chalet; Wolskis (Trading Post) and the early "museum".

THE ONE ROOM SCHOOL HOUSES

- from the Barnes Centennial Booklet

The old schoolhouses were also home to music and dances in the old days. I'm not sure which school had what, but there were quite a few schools throughout the early years. These early country schools shared education and community gatherings.

Barnes School - 1921 to 1947 was located at the junction of County Road N and Barnes Road. This was a two room school, built about 1920. It burned during Christmas vacation in 1947. It was then that school buses came from Drummond to pick up grade school students and those who wanted to attend High School.

Moore School - 1906 to 1934 (No info available)

Mc Neil School - 1924 to 1937

located at the junction of County Road A and Halfway Rd. The school closed in 1937 when families moved away. The building was moved to Pease Road in 1939.

Ulvin School - Became Roe School.

Roe School - 1906 to 1923

The Ben Roe homestead was one-half mile north of this school.

Hall School - 1923 to 1936

The Hall School replaced the Roe School in 1921. The building was sold to the VFW Post in 1947 and was torn down for building materials.

Pease School - 1939 to 1943 (formerly McNeil)

In 1939, this school replaced the school that had been operating at Pease Resort since 1924. It closed in Nov. 1943, when there were only three pupils. This building is currently a private residence.

Lake School - 1923 to 1936

Closed in 1938 and the building has been a private residence since 1940.

Little Red School - 1902 to 1921

First site of the Barnes School In 1920 it was replaced with a larger building as the population increased.

Stafford School - 1919 to 1924

No current roads to this site. In 1919, access was probably through Cable Township Rds.

Denver School - 1909 to 1913

The Denver School site was later the location of the Smith School in 1936 to 1939, serving the Denver grandchildren.

Brusky has appeared on over 60 recordings worldwide along with artists such as Frankie Yankovic. He plays the accordion, drums, bass guitar, piano, and tuba and performs roughly 150 events a year throughout Southeastern Wisconsin and abroad.

More about the band and a music sampler at: www.tombrusky.com/abouttheband.html

Early 1930's The Eau Claire Lakes Pavilion and Dance Hall was started by August Hulten, east of where the Hulten School was located, on County Y at Johnson Road. John Kofal next had it until 1945, when Ira Kofal ran the Pavilion and Dance Hall. This was a favorite weekend social gathering place, with groomed neighbors from far and near, all dressed up and dancing to live music. Corn meal made the wood floors slippery, and dancers had to watch out for the log posts which supported the roof! The regular Saturday night dances stopped in 1945. It then continued for years afterwards as a tavern.

THIS MONTH IN HISTORY

September 2, 31 B.C. - Roman legions under Augustus Caesar defeated Mark Anthony's naval force at Actium.

September 2, 1930 - French aviators Dieudonne Coste and Maurice Bellonte made the first non-stop flight from Europe to the USA.

September 3, 1783 - The Treaty of Paris was signed by John Adams, Ben Franklin and John Jay, formally ending the American Revolutionary War between Britain and the United States.

September 11, 2001 - The worst terrorist attack in U.S. history occurred as four large passenger jets were hijacked then crashed, killing nearly 3,000 persons. Four separate teams of Mideast terrorists, operating from inside the U.S., boarded the morning flights posing as passengers, then forcibly commandeered the aircraft. Two fully-fueled jumbo jets, American Airlines Flight 11 carrying 92 people and United Airlines Flight 175 carrying 65 people, had departed Boston for Los Angeles. Both jets were diverted by the hijackers to New York City where they were piloted into the twin towers of the World Trade Center. The impact and subsequent fire caused both 110-story towers to collapse, killing 2,752 persons including hundreds of rescue workers and people employed in the towers. In addition, United Airlines Flight 93, which had departed Newark for San Francisco, and American Airlines Flight 77, which had departed Dulles (Virginia) for Los Angeles, were hijacked. Flight 77 with 64 people on board was diverted to Washington, D.C., then piloted into the Pentagon building, killing everyone on board and 125 military personnel inside the building. Flight 93 with 44 people on board was also diverted toward Washington but crashed into a field in Pennsylvania after passengers attempted to overpower the terrorists on board.

September 16, 1620 - The Mayflower ship departed from England, bound for America with 102 passengers and a small crew. The ship weathered dangerous Atlantic storms and reached Provincetown, Massachusetts on November 21st. The Pilgrims disembarked at Plymouth on December 26th.

September 30, 1955 - Actor James Dean was killed in a car crash in California at age 24. Although he made just three major films, Rebel Without a Cause, East of Eden and Giant, he remains one of the most influential actors.

Birthday - Wild West legend Jesse James (1847-1882) was born in Centerville, Missouri. Following the American Civil War, Jesse and his brother Frank formed a group of outlaws, robbing banks, trains, stagecoaches and stores. In 1882, after the governor of Missouri offered a $10,000 reward for their capture dead or alive, a member of the gang shot 34-year-old Jesse in the back of the head and claimed the reward.

Ask a Master Gardener...September Native Plant of the Month

Great Blue Lobelia (Lobelia siphilitica)

I hope that many of you, especially those with lakeshores or property near streams or ponds, are still considering putting in a rain garden. There are numerous internet sites that can help you with the planning aspect, and the benefit to our waters is immense.

A stunning addition to any rain garden is the Great Blue Lobelia, sometimes called blue cardinal flower. It is a deciduous perennial plant that will grow from one to four feet tall with a one to one and a half foot spread. An erect plant, it usually remains unbranched, but may exhibit some branching. The cylindrical central stem is light to medium green, slender, ridged, and usually smooth but may have short hairs scattered along the ridges. The leaves growing alternately along the stem are 2-5" long, and up to 2" wide. The leaf edges are irregularly toothed and the leaf shape will vary somewhat and may be lance-shaped, oval, elliptical, or only slightly narrowed toward the base.

This clump-forming perennial begins blooming in July, offering a vividly hued counterpoint to the yellows of late summer with tall spikes of true-blue flowers emerging from the lower central stem and continuing along its length. The showy flowers are about 1 inch long, consisting of bright blue petals united into a tube having an upper lip of two lobes and a three-lobed lower lip. The upper lobes are narrow and usually curve back slightly, giving the appearance of ears. The wider, lower lobes are usually striped with white and appear more prominent than the ones above. The lower center lobe has two small bumps near the throat, with a spot of white at the top. The cluster is typically densely packed at the top and a bit looser at the bottom, with the flowers opening from the bottom to the top. The blooming period lasts about two months and afterwards capsules containing small seeds replace the flowers.

The Great blue lobelia prefers wet to moist soil and partial sun. Full sun is tolerated if the soil is consistently moist, light shade is also acceptable. If planted in shade, a slightly intermittent dryer soil is also tolerated. The soil should be fertile and loamy, but this plant can also do quite well in poorly drained clay soils. And, as with other rain garden plants, it will withstand occasional flooding.

This plant requires very little maintenance. You may want to deadhead to improve appearance and encourage rebloom, but let some flowers form seed heads because the plants are somewhat short lived and some re-seeding will keep your clump going. You also may want to pinch them back for bushier, more compact plants. Do not cut these plants back in fall, and mulch only lightly; while they are moisture loving during the growing season excess moisture in the winter can kill the plant. Propagate by dividing the clumps in spring every two to three years, taking bud cuttings in midsummer, or allow for reseeding.

This is an awesome garden plant! I took the inset picture of a plant I put in my garden late last summer. It's about 18" tall now but looks like it still has some growing to do. Other than the soil that came in the pot, it's growing in sand. This year, Mother Nature made all our gardens into "rain gardens", so if it ever dries out around here, I may have to do some supplemental watering. I don't mind. It is a beauty and brings in pollinators. The nectar and pollen of the flowers attract primarily bumblebees and other long-tongued bees. Butterflies and hummingbirds will visit. Bonus: most mammalian herbivores will avoid this plant because the foliage contains several toxins dangerous to humans only if eaten in copious quantities. Sorry, Bambi!

GORDON-BARNES GARDEN CLUB:

We really should add another name to the title of the club soon. We have several active members who travel all the way from Minong for our meetings, and part of our August meeting was to tour the gardens of member, Sally Dahlby on Lake Nancy in Minong.

Club members gathered at Sally's at 10:00 for the tour, and we enjoyed not only Sally's gardens which are a mix of cottage and prairie, but also her knowledge and willingness to share. Having endured some harsh storms in the last couple of years that took out many trees, she is enjoying a little payback in being able to grow more sun loving plants than ever before.

After our visit to Sally's, we went for lunch at Gruzzi's, a local restaurant with an Italian flavor. We all enjoyed our meals, and since many of us had not eaten there before, we enjoyed the new experience.

After lunch, some of the hardier members continued on to the Spooner Agriculture Station for a guided tour of the gardens there. The people who work at the station, are knowledgeable about native plants, invasives, soil composition and many other things gardeners need to know to be successful here in the north country. It was a beautiful warm summer day, absolutely perfect for a garden tour.

Our next meeting will be on September 19 at 1:30 at the Barnes Town Hall. We will be talking about propagating seeds for planting next spring. As always, we invite you to join us.

The Drummond Library - The Drummond Public Library and Historical Museum has become a popular destination for not only library services, but for a visit to the roots of the town of Drummond. TIME CHANGE for Medicare 101 Presentations!

Submitted by: Karin Bodin, Bayfield County

Medicare 101 Presentation will be held at 6:00 p.m. on September 12, at the Drummond Public Library in Drummond, WI

In January 2017, the Bayfield County Elder Benefits Specialist, Sheila Mack, began providing "Medicare 101" presentations once per month, January through September, throughout Bayfield County. The presentations had started at 3:00 p.m. and lasted up to 2 hours, but due to audience feedback, the remaining presentations, beginning with April's presentation, will start at 6:00 p.m. and last up to 2 hours, depending upon the information reviewed and questions asked by those attending the presentation. Hopefully this will be more convenient for attendees. Also, refreshments will be served.

These presentations will introduce you to the basics of Medicare and give you the information you need to know before making any decisions about whether you want to enroll in all parts of Medicare at age 65, some parts of Medicare, or none of them; and the possible consequences of not enrolling when you are first eligible to enroll. You will also learn about the three types of insurance that supplement Medicare because Medicare only pays 80% of hospital and medical costs, and the need for creditable prescription drug coverage either through Medicare Part D, Wisconsin Senior Care, or a Medicare Advantage Plan.

If you will be turning 65 this year, attending one of these trainings is strongly encouraged. The time available for the Elder Benefit Specialist to work with you in the office is becoming more and more limited due to the increase in assistance being requested. In order to provide prompt and efficient service to as many clients as possible, this presentation will provide basic information on Medicare in a group setting rather than one on one in the Elder Benefit Specialist office. This training will give you enough information to understand your options and be ready to make decisions when it is time to do so.

Below is a list of the dates and towns/cities that the remaining Medicare 101 presentations will be offered. If you plan to attend, please register by the day before the presentation is to be held, by calling: Karen Bodin at 715-373-6144, ext. 115. Registration is necessary to prepare enough materials for everyone who attends.

The Spice Corner:

With fall comes the yearning for food, which brings overall comfort and warmth to those who eat it. We retreat into our kitchens to provide our family with a meal that will stick to their ribs bringing them warmth from the inside out. Hearty, rich dishes, full of flavor and made with spices and seasoning reminiscent of the season adorn our tables as we gather together in celebration of the cooler days.

There are certain spices and seasonings associated with this season. We draw on their use to provide essence to our favorite comfort food, add them to our most beloved beverages and use candles reminiscent of their aroma to bring us refuge from the chilly temperatures outside.

Among the most common autumn spices and seasonings, cinnamon, ginger and cloves seem to be firmly associated with the season, making appearances in many of the recipes we associate with this time of the year.

CLOVES

Grandma will tell you that the holiday ham just isn't complete without the addition of cloves. Cloves are a spice you might be surprised to find in many of your comfort dishes. A small amount of cloves will go a long way to enhance receipts like mulled apple cider, marinara sauce, and savory glazes.

GINGER

Ginger can be found in many recipes during the fall months. Ginger in both the dried and fresh fruit form, is a spice routinely found in both sweet and savory recipes this time of year. Gingersnap cookies and gingerbread treats are included in many holiday gift trays. Pumpkin and apple pie recipes count on ginger to bring an added dimension of flavor to them. On the savory side ginger is often added to hearty curries, stir-fry recipes and marinades.

CINNAMON

From your morning toast and tea to homemade cookies baking in your oven, there is probably no other spice as widely recognized to give flavor to seasonal cooking as cinnamon. Cinnamon is commonly used in baking but can also be found giving an unexpected hint to of flavor to chili, roasted vegetables and savory meat dishes.

PUMPKIN SPICE BLEND

One recipe to keep on hand to add a little fall flavor to many of your dishes is a Pumpkin spice blend. Skip buying the pre-made version at the store and make up your own using the most common spices of autumn.

See Page 26 for recipe

MAKE BITTLE

Submitted by: Sandy Collins, from the kitchen of June Everts

1 Smoke Butt

Place the smoke butt in large kettle covering with water and boil for 1 hour. Remove the smoke butt and save the water for the dumplings. Keep the smoke butt warm.

Dumplings

2 eggs
1/2 tsp salt
1 1/2 cups water
4 1/2 cups flour
1/2 tsp baking powder
1/2 cup lard melted

Mix together and make into 2 large dumplings. Place the dumplings in cheese cloth wrapping each of the balls in the cheese cloth tying the ends and in the middle creating the look of a dumb bell. Boil the cheese cloth dumplings in the smoke butt water for 30 to 45 minutes. Remove dumplings from the cheese cloth and slice.

Sauce

1 lb. raisins
3/4 cup sugar

Place raisins in a kettle covering with water and sugar. Cook raisins until tender and plump. To make sauce thicker, use corn starch mixed with water.

To serve slice the smoke butt, dumplings and cover with raisin sauce for each serving.

PUMPKIN SPICE BLEND

By: simplebites.net

This spice mixture will really sing if you can grind the spices yourself.

Ingredients:

- 3 Tbsp ground cinnamon
- 1 Tbsp ground ginger
- 1 Tbsp nutmeg
- 1 tsp ground allspice
- 1 tsp ground cloves

Directions:

Place ingredients in a small bowl and combine. Store in an airtight container until ready to add to your favorite fall recipes.

Notes and Tips: If you wish to store the leftover ground spices or the spice mix longer than a week, keep them in the freezer where they will maintain their freshness for up to two months.

Buying whole spices will give you more flavor. Order online, buy from a local spice merchant or find an ethnic market.

Grind the whole spices at home. If you have a pepper mill you're off to a good start. You can also use a mortar and pestle to grind by hand.

An inexpensive coffee grinder works well too.
